- Operating system used by the user

List of cookies

A cookie is a small package of data (text files) that your browser stores on your device in the direction of a visited website in order to "remember" information about you, such as language settings or login information. These cookies are set by us and are referred to as first-party cookies. We also use third-party cookies that come from a domain other than that of the website you are visiting. We use these cookies to support our advertising and marketing efforts. In particular, we use cookies and other tracker technologies for the following purposes:

Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are necessary for the operation of the website and cannot be disabled in your systems. Typically, these cookies are only set in response to actions taken by the user that fulfill a service request, such as logging in or filling out forms. You can set your browser to block these cookies or to notify you of these cookies. However, some areas of the website will not work. These cookies do not store any personal data.

Your cookie settings

Your browser can be set so that cookies are created only with your consent or generally rejected. However, we would like to point out that without cookies, the areas of the website are limited or not usable at all.

You have the option to control the use of "cookies" and, if necessary, to prevent them by configuring your browser as follows:

- Internet Explorer, see here (<http://windows.microsoft.com/en-in/windows7/block-enable-or-allow-cookies>) Tools - Internet Options - "Advanced" tab - under the heading Security set the check mark for "Send "Do Not Track" requests to websites visited with Internet Explorer - confirm
- Firefox, see here (<https://support.mozilla.org/en-US/kb/enable-and-disable-cookies-website-preferences>) Menu - Settings - Privacy - set the History item to "create according to user-defined settings" - make the desired settings under "Cookies" - confirm
- Google Chrome, see here (<https://support.google.com/chrome/answer/95647?hl=en>) Menu - Settings - Advanced settings - click on "Content settings" in the "Privacy" section - set the desired check marks under "Cookies" - confirm
- Safari, see here (https://support.apple.com/kb/ph5042?locale=en_US) Safari - Settings - Privacy - Make the desired settings under "Cookies and website data" - confirm
